DRFC CODE OF CONDUCT

Responsibilities of Doha RFC to its Members

1. To manage Doha RFC via an Executive Committee, as outlined in the Constitution.
2. To uphold the Bye Laws of Doha RFC and to deal quickly and efficiently with requests or complaints from members.
3. To communicate with members via the website, newsletter, and social media regarding all Doha RFC news and event information.
4. To organise training sessions and competitive gameplay for each playing level.
5. To facilitate the traveling of competitive teams to games and tournaments.
6. To maintain, or arrange to be maintained, the grounds, equipment, and facilities used by Doha RFC.

Responsibilities of Members to Doha RFC

1. To abide by the Doha RFC Constitution and Bye Laws.
2. To support DRFC teams in home and away games and tournaments.
3. To refrain from partaking in any kind of abusive behaviour - verbal or physical - in or around the grounds or facilities used by Doha RFC or whilst representing Doha RFC.
4. To be respectful of staff members and club officials of Doha RFC or those working or employed at any grounds or facilities used by DRFC at all times.
5. To treat equipment, apparatus, and furniture with care.
6. To ensure that Doha RFC's reputation is maintained by upholding its values and by not bringing the club into disrepute by behaving poorly, breaking the Bye Laws, or taking any other action or activity that the Executive Committee might deem, in its discretion, to impact the reputation of DRFC. Such behaviour may include, without limitation, bullying or toxic or divisive behaviour.

This Code of Conduct is particularly pertinent as we exist within an Islamic country and ultimately abide by Islamic laws and traditions. Failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in criminal proceedings against the member(s) involved and the members of the Executive Committee; Doha RFC could be shut down over a single incident and it's therefore vital that all members act responsibly. Doha RFC & RDT will not put the interests of any member or individual above its own preservation or interests.
